Treasurer Report	Checking=$33,000- $5,000  Mutual Fund $ 24,478  Total $57,478  The mutual fund only lost about $500 in the economic hard times.  501c3 changes are moving forward. Target date remains Dec 2008.  The increased expenses were discussed and listed below:  Newsletter is $8,000 more expensive than the past (currently sends 2,600 copies 4x annually)  Additional $600 spent on NY State delegates. These expenses could be possibly less for the 2009 Baltimore conference since it is closer. (Possibly within driving distance for some chapters.)  TNCC roll-out was expensive. Hawaii expenses for BOD were more expensive. Legislative breakfast was this year. It is scheduled bi-annually so we may more funds 2009. 501c3	Judy Jax  jjax@winthrop.Org	Closed

	conversion is costly with lawyer and accountant fees. The possible increase in income is as follows: Membership has increased and a portion is returned to the state council. ENA will be running more TNCC/ENPC classes. The government is recommending these classes for all pre-training for Iraq medics, which should increase the state attendance at these classes.
Treasurer Report	Each chapter should be submitting a financial summary and end of the year report to National ENA and will now need to submit a copy to the NYSCENA treasurer.	Judy Jax  jjax@winthrop.Org	Closed

Communications Committee	Deadline latest Dec 1- Southern Tier, NausseaQueens, Suffolk, Western to submit article.          Deadline Jan TBA - Adirondack, Central, Genesee to submit an article.          A letter was sent to each ER for emergency nurses day.          The old logo for Setting the Pace has already been submitted as "save the date" for the Nov newsletter. That is considered internal use and will be acceptable. Extra newsletters are available at this meeting. Please give forms to possible exhibitors available from MaryEllen. John Hancock is interested in supporting other ENA activities.          Discussion followed to perhaps limit the newsletter to 8 pages instead of 11 pages to conserve cost.          Possibly ask new members if they want the newsletter electronically delivered instead of a hard copy. Information requested about who runs website, what are the charges to remove names from website, or add a mailing list? Request for proposal for a new website continues. Membership	NY membership currently 2,179. - Now 2266- largest ever. 1 member from each chapter won a free membership as a free drawing for emergency nurses week. Staff nurses will be targeted this year for membership. A letter, ENA application form, group membership information, clinical ladder points summary and annual conference brochure will be sent to Emergency Departments. The 2010 plan is to target ED educators. Judy Jax says members are still assigned to wrong chapters. A suggestion was made that once a year have a newsletter article listing chapter numbers and names and the process for an individual to change this.	Mickey Forness mickeyforness@yahoo.com	Closed
Professional Development	EMS-spinal immobilization put on in the field, may not be removed until the patient receives medical clearance. In the past if the patient was ambulatory, a self-clearance was done. A new form is being used: MOLST form- Medical Order Life Sustaining Treatment- which could include a DNR was signed into law in July 2008. The color is hot pink. Also health care proxy and DNR could be included. Professional Issues and Practice-Government affairs	Legislative breakfast 2010 plans continue. The date was set for January 26, 2010 to avoid Martin Luther King Day conflicts. Deb suggests Re-introducing yourself to the new legislators that were elected Nov 2008. EN411 has new applicants. Proposed medicaid cuts by Governor Patterson were discussed. It could have a significant impact to hospitals and ER's. If ACEP is in agreement to jointly oppose these cuts, a letter (Samantha Vining is composing) will be written in combination with ACEP. NYSNA is asking for violence against nurses to be addressed. Currently it is a class D felony on NY state books. Mandatory overtime bill was passed by the NYS legislators in the fall, but a tenuous situation on abandonment exists.	Deb Taylor	Open
